
CHAPTER J

LICENSE SUSPENSION FOR FAILURE TO PAY CHILD SUPPORT: Non-custodial parents, unwilling to make required child support payments, may now be subject to suspension of their driver license. A non-paying parent's license can be suspended in two ways:

1. Court-Ordered Suspension: A court that has determined that a parent is intentionally withholding child support payments may order the Bureau of Motor Vehicles to immediately suspend the non-paying parent's driver license indefinitely until the parent begins making payments satisfactory to the court.
2. Administratively-Ordered Suspension: If the local agency responsible for the administration of enforcing child support payments determines that a parent is more than three (3) months or two thousand dollars (2,000) behind in child support that agency may send an order to the Bureau of Motor Vehicles requiring that the non-paying parent's driver license be suspended indefinitely in twenty (20) days unless, in that twenty-day period, the parent pays the unpaid amounts, arranges to have an amount automatically withheld from his or her paycheck, or contests whether he or she is in fact delinquent in child support payments.

CHAPTER K

LICENSE SUSPENSION FOR GRAFFITI: Effective July 1, 1996, the driving privileges of a person convicted of the act of making graffiti may be suspended, at the discretion of the court, for a period of up to one (1) year.

CHAPTER L

Upon any reasonable ground appearing on the records of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, the bureau may suspend or revoke licenses, registration certificates or plates.
